

NEW YORK STATE
SENATE

Proclamation

COMMEMORATING THE CENTENNIAL ANNIVERSARY OF THE NEW YORK STATE ASSOCIATION OF COUNTIES

WHEREAS, The New York State Association of Counties (NYSAC) was established one hundred years ago; it is dedicated to being a collective voice and staunch advocate for New York State's sixty-two counties, including the five boroughs of New York City; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, NYSAC has worked to strengthen the efficacy of county governments through education and training, vigorous advocacy in the State Capitol, and sharing research and best practices, all designed to address the specific challenges faced by county officials and their communities; and

WHEREAS, Over the last century, NYSAC has been pivotal in fighting for the interests of county governments at both the State and federal levels; this ensures that the concerns and needs of local government officials are heard and addressed; and

WHEREAS, For decades, NYSAC has delivered essential resources and training to county officials; this has equipped them with the necessary knowledge and tools to provide effective and efficient services to the residents of New York State; and

WHEREAS, Through its unwavering commitment to excellence in government, NYSAC has nurtured innovative solutions and best practices; this has enhanced county operations and elevated the quality of life for millions of New Yorkers; and

WHEREAS, NYSAC has also fostered a legacy of cooperation and partnership among county governments; this has promoted a spirit of unity and mutual support essential for tackling common challenges and achieving shared objectives; and

WHEREAS, The centennial anniversary of NYSAC is a significant milestone; it celebrates not only the Association's enduring commitment to public service, but also its substantial impact on the governance and well-being of New York State's counties and residents; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That I, New York State Senate Majority Leader Andrea Stewart-Cousins, am proud to commemorate the centennial anniversary of the New York State Association of Counties, recognizing its invaluable contributions to the counties and residents throughout New York State; and be it further

PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this proclamation be transmitted to the New York State Association of Counties.
