

OFFICE OF THE STATE COMPTROLLER
STATE OF NEW YORK

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the New York State Association of Counties is hosting its Annual Legislative Conference and celebrating a century of serving the elected and appointed officials of New York's 62 counties; and

WHEREAS, NYSAC traces its origins to 1925 when leaders and representatives from a handful of counties convened in the spirit of what became NYSAC's Mission of Four Pillars to "represent, educate, advocate and serve" the common needs and interests of all of New York's counties; and

WHEREAS, NYSAC provides research on public policy issues, training, and technical assistance on such topics as unfunded mandates and property tax implementation for its member counties, regardless of size, region, or political ideology and united by the shared interests of a diverse state; now let it be

PROCLAIMED, that State Comptroller Thomas P. DiNapoli does hereby congratulate and applaud NYSAC for one hundred years of outstanding service; and be it further PROCLAIMED, that on this twenty-fourth day of February, two thousand twenty-five, Comptroller DiNapoli does join with the people of New York in thanking the New York State Association of Counties for its century of service and wishing many more years of success in their vital mission.
